

Unit 26 Ullenwood Court
Cheltenham GL53 9QS
01242 528444
www.peakhire.co.uk
contact@peakhire.co.uk

Risk Assessment Record

Area: Staging Systems
Location: Generic
Reference: Black Trailer Stage
Assessment completed by: Stu Petersen
Date: Last update 26th October 2007

Method statements for the activities will be supplied to the staff involved in their undertaking.

Activities:

This assessment covers Assembly of Black Trailer Stage.

Severity	Likelihood	Risk Class
Equipment Damage	Impossible	High
No Injury	Remote	Moderate
Trivial injury	Possible	Minor
Minor injury	Probably	Acceptable
Major injury	Likely	Remote
Fatal injury

Hazards

Item	Hazard	Severity	Likelihood	Risk Class
1	Risk of falling	Fatal injury	Possible	Remote
2	Risk of head injuries	Minor injury	Remote	Remote
3	Risk of crush injuries during installation	Major injury	Possible	Minor
4	Risk of back injury in lifting stage beams	Minor Injury	Remote	Remote

Persons at Risk:

Employees: Yes
Contractors: Yes
Public: No

Current Controls / Procedures

Item	Control/ Procedures	Monitored and Assessed by:	Adequate control
1	An approved harness should be worn at all times. This harness should be attached via a fall arrest device as appropriate.	Senior Rigger	Yes
2	Where overhead hazards are present a safety helmet should be worn.	Crew Chief	Yes
3	Staff to be issued with appropriate PPE and instructed in the safe method of stage erection.	Crew Chief	Yes
4	Where an item is deemed to be over the recommended safe lifting weight for one man a buddy system is to be employed or if appropriate mechanical systems can be used to aid in the positioning of these beams	Crew Chief	Yes

Additional Action Plan Required?

(Yes/No?)

No